Charlie Jerrell

Dec. 11, 1961 – Jan. 28, 2019

Charles Edward Jerrell, 57, and a resident of Thomas, died Jan. 28, 2019, at his home. He was married to Valeria Turnage Jerrell for 29 years.

After working in construction most of his life, Charlie left his own sheetrock business and alongside his wife returned to Franklinton to help in the family trucking business. He obtained his CDL license and drove a milk truck for Turnage Trucking. He loved his mother-in-law and father-in-law and was a great help in caring for them during their final years of life.

He loved hunting, fishing and the outdoors. He liked to barbecue and if you knew him, you knew he loved to eat, as he was a meat and potatoes type of guy. Jerrell attended New Stateline Missionary Baptist Church, where he was the grounds keeper for the last year.

Survivors are his wife; three daughters and sons in law: Kristina and Juan Elizondo of Folsom, Kimberly Jerrell of Thomas, Amanda Catchot and Francisco Ruiz of El Dorado, AR; grandchildren: Ava Elizondo, Kinslee Ingram, Gabriela Ingram, Keegan Ingram, Gaven Ingram; brothers: Samuel Jerrell, Jr. of Thomas, Richard Dale Jerrell of Bush; sister-in-law and brother-in-law: Pat and Danny Lea; half-sister and half-brother: Kathy Jerrell, J.R. Jerrell.

He was preceded in death by his father S.J. Jerrell, Sr., mother Janella Cotton Carroll, a sister Dorothy Jerrell, grandmother Margie Ponthieux, grandfather L.A. Jerrell.

A funeral service was in Crain Funeral Home chapel Jan. 31, 2019, with Eld. Duane Ball and Eld. Darren Uzell officiating, burial in the Turnage Cemetery near his home.

Pallbearers were John Mord, Lewis Williams, Delbert Wood, Robbie Turnage, Wayne Duncan, Rande Jerrell.

Honorary pallbearers were Toney McDaniel, Brycen Duncan, Donald Herring, Wayne Brooks

Crain Funeral Home of Franklinton was in charge of the arrangements. Obituaries can be viewed online at www.crainfh.com

Jeanne Barclay

Dec. 29, 1925 – Jan. 24, 2019

Funeral services for Jeanne "Mean Jean" Barclay, 93, of McComb, were Jan. 29, 2019, at Silver Creek Baptist Church.

Mrs. Barclay died at her residence Jan. 24, 2019. She was born Dec. 29, 1925, in Belgium to the late Arille and Arilla Pichry. She was also preceded in death by her husband James A. Barclay; daughters Betty Rowell and Arlette McEwen; and stepson James Barclay Jr.

Survivors include her granddaughter: Valarie Berry; Grandsons: Craig (Stephanie) Rowell and Jamey Rowell; great-grandsons: Conner Berry, Brandon Berry, Brett (Bethany) Rowell, and Blake (Kaley) Rowell; great-great-granddaughter Jacklynn Berry and son-in-law Aubrey Rowell.

Born and raised in Belgium she found herself living through World War II where she met her husband who was serving in the military at the time. The chain on his tank had broken off in front of her house and her family housed the soldiers for the night. When the war was over he came back to Belgium to find her and bring her to the U.S. where they married and started their life. She enjoyed telling stories about her life and all the things that she had gone through. She loved her dogs, family, eating seafood, and spending time riding the tractor.

Pallbearers were Conner Berry, Collin Burnette, Brett Rowell, Blake Rowell, Brandon Berry, and Bobby Nations.
